The sloped section is best for reading and writing. The flat-top section is best for computer work or laying out work materials. You can have the sloped section on the right or the left. So whatever you choose, on the right or the left side you have the flat top for your monitor and keyboard. Then on the opposite side, you have your other work and/or reading materials. This desk is available in 2', 2'6", 3', 3'6", 4', 4'6", 5', 5'6", 6' foot widths. This gives you a wide selection of combinations for a reading/writing section on one side and a flat-top computer platform on the other side. You may divide the sloped section and the flat-top section in any combination of 6" increments. So the desk starts at 2' sloped and 1'6" flat and you can add width in 6" increments to either side depending on the total width you are ordering. The normal desk depth is 29 inches. Your desks height will be made to order so you can be sure your stand-up desk will fit you perfectly. Even though some of our standing desks are not adjustable
